Yoga at the Library: Gentle Flow for Adults
Community Meeting Room

Saturday, June 3 @ 9:00 am
Saturday, June 17 @ 9:00 am

Join us at the library on the first and third Saturdays of the month for a simple yoga practice designed for every body. Move through some basic poses while linking breath to movement. Great for beginners or anyone looking for a gentle practice. Bring your own yoga mat. Please arrive 5 minutes before class. No admittance once class begins. No classes in July.

Observations from a Roaming Volunteer in Ukraine
Community Meeting Room

Saturday, June 3 @ 2:00 pm

Anacortes resident Marketa Vorel spent this spring in Ukraine on a humanitarian mission. She became inspired by the incredible bravery and grit of the Ukrainian people. Marketa will share observations, anecdotes, photos, and answer your questions about the people she met, what it's like under Russian occupation, and how Ukrainians restored her faith in humanity.

FriendShop Book Sale: Seven Dollar Saturday
Library Lobby

Saturday, June 10 @ 10:00 am - 3:00 pm

Come to the FriendShop book sale to stock up on books, CDs and DVDs to keep you entertained all summer long. Bring your own tote bag (no oversized bags allowed) and fill it to the brim for just $7.00. We have an overstock of mysteries and children's books! All proceeds go directly towards library programs and collections.

Swing Dances for Everyone
Anacortes Senior Activity Center, 1701 22nd St.

Saturday, June 10 @ 7:00 - 9:00 pm

The Manieri Endowment presents Swing Dances for Everyone. Put on your dancing shoes and dance the night away with A'Town Big Band.

Second Sunday Jazz: A'Town Big Band
Heart of Anacortes, 1014 14th Street

Sunday, June 11 @ 2:00 pm

A'Town Big Band is Skagit County's own popular big band. Providing lots of energy, they perform contemporary big band music by Count Basie, Sammy Nestico, Stan Kenton, Gordon Goodwin, Buddy Rich, Tom Kubis, Alan Baylock plus local composers Jim Cutler, Daniel Barry and Phil Kelly, among others.
